MK-9 Chemical Aerosol Projector: The MK-9 unit is one of the largest easy to carry less – than-lethal option for law enforcement officers. When the need for applying a great amount of controlling force is needed, the MK-9 is what you want to have in your hand. The Fog and Vapor Delivery Systems are great for engaging crowds because of its wide dispersal pattern. The Ballistic Steam Delivery System can engage crowds as well, yet can target specific individuals. Each system gives its operator a tactical advantage when controlling force is needed. It is perfect for prisoner cell extractions, controlling small crowds, pre-entry, and area denial situations.
